Chair Raymond Buckley
New Hampshire Democratic Party
105 N. State Street
Concord, NH 03301

Dear Chair Buckley,

As you are aware, the Rules and Bylaws Committee (RBC) deemed the New Hampshire Democratic Party's plan non-compliant on December 1, 2023. Non-compliant processes can disenfranchise and confuse voters, so on December 13, we informed you of several points from the RBC's discussion that were important to mitigate the negative effects of your decision. We clearly stated that:

- The event on January 23, 2024 cannot be used as the first determining stage of the state's delegate selection process and is considered detrimental.
- The NHDP must take steps to educate the public that January 23rd is a non-binding presidential preference event and is meaningless and the NHDP and presidential candidates should take all steps possible not to participate.
- No delegates or alternates shall be apportioned based on the results of the January 23, 2024 event.
- No scheduling of events related to the selection of delegates or alternates in New Hampshire may be based on the January 23, 2024 event.

We are aware that the Party intends to host a delegate selection process on Saturday, January 6. We advise you to inform participants that this process has not been approved by the RBC and is therefore not the approved route to become a Delegate to the National Convention, nor will it be recommended for approval by the RBC.

We look forward to receiving an updated, compliant, Delegate Selection Plan by January 15, 2024.

Sincerely,

Minyon Moore
